Table B-10. Counties — Farm Population, Farm Earnings, and Agriculture—Con.

[Includes U.S., states, and 3,142 counties/county equivalents defined as of January 1, 1992. For changes to these areas since January 1, 1992, see appendix B. Geographic Information]
